

Music Director-New Hope United Methodist Church

Are you musically talented and would you like to share your gift with others? New Hope United Methodist Church has the perfect opportunity for you.

New Hope United Methodist Church, located in Des Moines, Iowa, is seeking a Music Director to lead and direct our Chancel Choir and Praise Band to develop a robust music program.

This person builds relationships and collaborates with pastors and other church members to deliver musical ministry at the 8:30am and 10:45am Sunday worship services. This position works closely with the pianist and organist and other musical members of the church to provide special music on Sundays and special services to include Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday, Easter and Christmas Eve

The ideal candidate for this position will possess the following skills:

- Solid musical background with attention to the teachings of the church
- Ability to effectively recruit and train volunteers for the choir
- Experience in directing adult, youth or other musical groups
- Well organized
- Ability to create a healthy balance between quality music and building and maintaining strong relationships
- Ability to lead people and promote teamwork
- Ability to collaborate with others
- Positive and caring manner

If you are interested in learning more about our opportunity, please submit your resume to Vicki O'Brien, SPRC Chair at vickiobrien1@netzero.com.

An Equal Opportunity Employer